Blunderbus Theatre Company and The Brook Theatre proudly present

The Adventures of Pinocchio

This Christmas, enjoy the tale of Geppetto the wood carver and Pinocchio, the puppet he creates from a piece of enchanted wood. Pinocchio tries so hard to be good for Geppetto but he keeps getting into trouble and his nose grows with each fib and failure! In the end, of course, with the help of the Blue Fairy, Pinocchio achieves his dearest wish and becomes a real boy.

This magical and intelligent re-telling of Carlo Collodi's fairy tale is funny, colourful and very visual, using life-size puppets alongside professional actors and supported by young performers from Youth Theatres in Medway. With specially-composed music, both live and recorded, this is a wonderful Christmas treat for the young and old.

Booking information

Box Office Hours

The Box Office is open Monday to Saturday 10am to 5pm or until 15 minutes after curtain up on performance nights.

By Credit Card

Telephone the Box Office after 10am and pay for your tickets by Visa or Mastercard. All transactions must be over £5. Tickets can be posted to you on the same day for a 50p charge or kept at the Box Office for collection on the day. Please be patient when phoning the Box Office during busy periods (i.e. around show times) as calls are answered in strict rotation.

Postal bookings

When booking by post, please enclose a stamped addressed envelope so that tickets can be forwarded to you. Cheques should be made payable to Medway Council. Please print your name, address, daytime telephone number and cheque card number on the reverse.

Reservations

Tickets must be paid for in person or by post within three days of reservation or 30 minutes prior to curtain up, whichever is the sooner. Seats not paid for after this time will be released.

Return of tickets

Tickets cannot be exchanged or money refunded. Patrons are advised to check their tickets at the time of purchase.

Resale of Tickets

Tickets may be left at Box Office for resale, however The Brook Theatre cannot guarantee their sale and can only offer them for resale after all the theatre's own seats have been sold.

Discounts

The Brook Theatre's Box Office reserves the right to introduce special offers and discounts in accordance with the hirer's wishes without notice; these will not apply to tickets already purchased before the announcement. Availability of concessions will also vary according to the hirer's wishes. Please contact The Brook Theatre Box Office for details.

Facilities for customers with disabilities

There is wheelchair access to The Brook Theatre either by the electronic platform on the front steps or via the ramped entrance on Whiffens Avenue. On the ground floor there is wheelchair access to the cinema, Box Office, café, gallery and toilet for disabled persons. A lift in the ground floor foyer can then provide further access to the Main Theatre, the Studio Theatre and the theatre bar on the first floor.

Four wheelchair spaces per performance are available in the Main Theatre and one in the Studio Theatre.

An infra red loop hearing system is fitted in the main theatre. Patrons wishing to use this system should see Box Office to collect a hearing device. A loop system is also fitted in the studio theatre, conference room and large dance studio. Patrons wishing to use the system in these rooms should switch their hearing aids to T.

A Minicom system is available at Box Office on 01634 880969.

Doors Open

Doors open 30 minutes before curtain up. The licensed bar is open during performances and interval drinks can be ordered before the performance.
